

For an English liberal arts major with an associate’s degree from a New Jersey community college:

(1) Fall Major Course (LIT 200 Intro to Poetry) Major Course (lit hist or LIT/CWR/LNG elective) Minor course or elective Minor course or elective	(2) Spring Major Course (LIT 201 Approaches to Lit) Major Course (lit hist or LIT/CWR/LNG elective) Major Course (lit hist or LIT/CWR/LNG elective) Minor course or elective
(3) Fall Major Course (LIT 202 Cultures & Canons) Major Course (lit hist or LIT/CWR/LNG elective) Major Course (LIT 499 or 497) Minor course or elective	(4) Spring Major Course (lit hist or LIT/CWR/LNG elective) Major Course (lit hist or LIT/CWR/LNG elective) Major Course (LIT 499 or 497) Minor course or elective

Minors are optional, and if you choose to complete a minor, one course may count toward both the minor and the major with approval of the associate chair. (Such approval is not needed for a CWR or LNG course; either will be double-counted without approval.) Important: in order to complete the Creative Writing minor, students must contact the Creative Writing coordinator to discuss the requirements.

The English major requires a total of 11 courses, including 3 Literary History (1 before 1660) and 3 English Electives. When a course counts for both the major and the minor, or when you have transferred in a course that counts toward your English major or your minor, please note that your courses (including transfer credits, which are typically 16 units for an associate’s degree) must still add up to 32 units.

For an English secondary education major with an associate’s degree from a New Jersey community college:

(5) Fall EED 490: Student Teaching SED 498: Collaborative Capstone Seminar These two courses count as a total of three course units.	Notes: Although the department advises against taking LIT 499 with junior practicum, and advises against taking any additional course with senior practicum, for many transfer students, one or both of these situations is unavoidable. Under no circumstances may a student take two sections of LIT 499 in the same semester.

The English major requires a total of 11 courses, including 3 Literary History (1 before 1660), LNG, and 2 English Electives. Within the Literary History and English Electives, at least one must be from each of the following categories, from the lists in PAWS: American/U.S., British/English, and World literature

The schedule above assumes that the student has taken two English literature courses at the community college. If no English courses have been transferred from the community college, an additional semester or summer/winter session courses will be required.

Semesters 3 and 4 can be exchanged, depending on when the students wants to complete her/his junior practicum semester, but we recommend taking EED 400 after or with the junior practicum.

In the junior year, the student will be required to take a content knowledge examination, which will appear on the transcript as EED 450, a zero-credit, pass/fail course; if it is not passed on the first attempt, it will appear the subsequent semester as well. Passing the exam is not a graduation requirement.

For a Journalism major with an associate’s degree from a New Jersey community college:

Minors are optional, and if you choose to complete a minor, one course may count toward both the minor and the major with approval of the associate chair. Please note that your courses (including transfer credits, which are typically 16 units for an associate’s degree) must add up to 32 units.

Dual majors in Education and English should consult the relevant Education department, but below is a sample plan for Elementary Education and English:

(5) Fall ELE 301 SOM 203 RAL 321 ELE 301 (junior practicum) counts as two course units.	(6) Spring ELE 490 ELE 498 These two courses (senior practicum) count as a total of three course units. The School of Education will not permit you to take a fourth unit during junior or senior practicum.

The English major requires a total of 11 courses, including 3 Literary History (1 before 1660), LNG, and 2 English Electives. Under no circumstances may a student take two sections of LIT 499 in the same semester.

The schedule above assumes that the student has taken two English literature courses at the community college. (American/U.S., British/English, and World literature count as Literary History. Short Story and Novel are examples of English Electives. Children’s Literature does not count as an English course.) If no English courses have been transferred from the community college, an additional semester or additional summer/winter session courses will be required.

Notes from the Elementary Education department:

- RAL 221 and ELE 201 must be taken together.
- MTT 202 and MST 202 must be taken together.
- The above courses are prerequisites to ELE 301.
- It is recommended that ELE 301 be taken with RAL 321 and SOM 203. In the event that this prevents the student from completing the major courses, flexibility in scheduling these courses is recommended.
