

“Kanye once grew from the ocean and reached the clouds in the sky. And Kanye almost died in a car accident,

so he became a star.”

-from “Mythic”

ink's Visiting Writers Series Presents

Poet & Editor

Sarah Blake

Thursday, March 10
at 5:30PM
Library Auditorium

Sarah Blake is a poet who recently debuted with the book, Mr. West, a collection of poetry about Kanye West. Blake is also TCNJ alumna. She is the founder of the online writing tool Subittrs, and an editor at Saturnalia Books. She is the recipient of a Literature Fellowship from the NEA in 2013.